2019 Alberta Guide to Hunting Regulations

The Government of Alberta Guide to Hunting Regulations is the only publication that can get your message in front of each and every Alberta hunter. Every hunter in Alberta is required to know the rules contained within these regulations. Like newsstand publications, the annual hunting regulations also include stories about Alberta's hunting scene. However, this is the only publication that can be considered a "must read" product. It is the only source of critical information such as open seasons, bag limits, and regulation changes. For this reason, the Alberta Guide to Hunting Regulations must be referred to time and time again throughout the year giving them additional value.

Alberta is one of the strongest outdoor markets in Canada, and the Alberta Guide to Hunting Regulations is the most targeted advertising option available for Alberta hunters. When you consider cost-per-image, we offer up to six times the value of any other outdoor publication in Alberta, making this the most cost-effective way to get your message out to the men and women that hunt in this province.
